NIL-STEM

Network, Interact, and Learn STEM

About Us

NIL-STEM is a virtual, non-monetary program that encourages high school students in rural areas to explore and learn of the various futures in science, technology and engineering fields by connecting them to valuable mentors of various expertise.

Our Mission

We are driven by the mission to foster inclusivity and accessibility to STEM education, and envision playing a pivotal role in bridging the urban-rural divide in these opportunities.

What We Do

NIL-STEM hosts biweekly meetings with various industry professionals for high school students interested in the diverse careers within STEM.

Meetings

Meetings will consist of presentations prepared by mentors and a Q&A session at the end. Information about our upcoming meetings is available on our website, along with a link to sign up for specific meetings. Meetings will occur on Thursday at 7 PM MST.

BRITE/IMPACT RMH Movie Event - Info Letter

Date: June 14, 2025 @ 8:30 am

Hi Everyone,

The BRITE (South Schools Mental Health Program), IMPACT Committee and Sage Wellness Connection (sponsored by the RMH project) are once again joining forces to continue the conversation around mental health focused on families by bringing everyone together through a Free Pancake Breakfast and Movie Event.

The movie, "How to Train Your Dragon" supports mental health and wellness by emphasizing themes of self-acceptance, resilience, and empathy. The movie portrays the journey of Hiccup, who overcomes fear, self-doubt, and societal expectations to build a deep bond with Toothless, a dragon. This relationship fosters emotional growth and demonstrates the importance of compassion, understanding differences, and problem-solving. For both kids and adults, the story highlights the value of patience and perseverance in overcoming challenges and the power of forging connections, ultimately promoting emotional well-being and mental resilience. This movie has notably sparked important conversations about the value of expanding our intellectual wellness and building our social wellness connections to continue the journey of growth. For parents, caregivers and teachers looking to delve deeper into the film's themes, we are offering a Free Movie Event - Inside Out 2 on June 14, 2025, at 8:30 am at the Alma Theatre in Wainwright, AB. Start your day with the Free Pancake Breakfast and playing games with the local Mental Health and Wellness Resources to get your ticket stamped for free admittance along with popcorn and pop at the movie.

Details below:

7:30 am: Doors open for Local Mental Health Resources (set up)

8:30 am: Doors open for participants

8:30 am- 10:30 am: Interact with Local Mental Health Resources - earn a free movie and popcorn

10:30 am to 12:30 pm: Watch the New "How to Train Your Dragon" Movie

All children must have an adult present during the entire event. Everyone must have a ticket. Limited number of tickets available.

Please email me at shannon.fife@btps.ca if you would like more information or are interested in attending this event. Follow the link provided on the poster if you would like to attend as a guest. Please feel free to share the attached poster.
