BRITE 2025 Mental Health Week

Unmasking Mental Health

What is “Masking”? We tend to use the term “masking” when people try to cover up or suppress their mental health symptoms to blend in with others around them. While some people mask their emotions and personality traits intentionally to fit in, others do so unconsciously. In their families or communities, they may have received negative feedback for appearing sad, fearful, or confused. Wanting acceptance, they create compensation strategies to ensure others cannot see their true selves.

This year BRITE offered activities each day based on discovering your superhero strengths and discovering who you are behind that superhero mask. BRITE encouraged teachers and students to listen carefully to the daily mental health announcements that explored the concepts of masking and collect letters from each day. Problem-solving enables us to identify opportunities in our environment and exert some level of control over our future. Problem solving skills and the problem-solving process are a critical part of daily life both as individuals and organizations.

Each classroom was asked to sort out the letters to spell out a 5-word sentence that related to the topics and ideas we have been talking about and practicing over the last 5 days. The successful classes entered into a draw for TimBits Bouquet.

Thank you everyone for taking the time to solve the word puzzle. Remember, “Being You is Your Superpower”!

BRITE/IMPACT RMH Movie Event - Info Letter

Date: June 14, 2025 @ 8:30 am

Hi Everyone,

The BRITE (South Schools Mental Health Program), IMPACT Committee and Sage Wellness Connection (sponsored by the RMH project) are once again joining forces to continue the conversation around mental health focused on families by bringing everyone together through a Free Pancake Breakfast and Movie Event.

The movie, "How to Train Your Dragon" supports mental health and wellness by emphasizing themes of self-acceptance, resilience, and empathy. The movie portrays the journey of Hiccup, who overcomes fear, self-doubt, and societal expectations to build a deep bond with Toothless, a dragon. This relationship fosters emotional growth and demonstrates the importance of compassion, understanding differences, and problem-solving. For both kids and adults, the story highlights the value of patience and perseverance in overcoming challenges and the power of forging connections, ultimately promoting emotional well-being and mental resilience. This movie has notably sparked important conversations about the value of expanding our intellectual wellness and building our social wellness connections to continue the journey of growth. For parents, caregivers and teachers looking to delve deeper into the film's themes, we are offering a Free Movie Event - Inside Out 2 on June 14, 2025, at 8:30 am at the Alma Theatre in Wainwright, AB. Start your day with the Free Pancake Breakfast and playing games with the local Mental Health and Wellness Resources to get your ticket stamped for free admittance along with popcorn and pop at the movie.

Details below:

7:30 am: Doors open for Local Mental Health Resources (set up)

8:30 am: Doors open for participants

8:30 am- 10:30 am: Interact with Local Mental Health Resources - earn a free movie and popcorn

10:30 am to 12:30 pm: Watch the New "How to Train Your Dragon" Movie

All children must have an adult present during the entire event. Everyone must have a ticket. Limited number of tickets available.

Please email me at shannon.fife@btps.ca if you would like more information or are interested in attending this event. Follow the link provided on the poster if you would like to attend as a guest. Please feel free to share the attached poster.
